Book your wedding with us

The most memorable and special occasion of your life needs an equally memorable and unique setting, and with Brome Grange Hotel, you will not be disappointed. Acres of gorgeous countryside and the historic 16th century hotel are the perfect setting for the most special of days.

With expert weddings and events specialists on hand, our team are ready and waiting to make your big day extra special and help craft memories you'll treasure for life.

Tailor-made wedding experiences

Our expertise in managing the most beautiful weddings offering a unique experience for every couple and their guests is a bit of a poorly kept secret. Our reputation precedes us as many happy couples and parties have enjoyed a fully bespoke wedding ceremony and event, in keeping with their exact needs and requirements.

Grand and extravagant or small and intimate, our weddings are fully tailored to you. We offer the full package, with complete wedding packages with custom options and fully bespoke themes and features available. If you're not sure exactly what you want, our experts are on hand to help guide you through the process and craft the perfect event.

Comfort and space

Acres of lush greenery are the backdrop for our beautiful setting. Our 16th century tithe barn brings a real sense of history and majesty to your event, ensuring a sophisticated and elegant venue for the most important day your life.

Our large Vintage Room is charmingly rustic with sweeping weathered wooden beams, glittering chandeliers, and a special, celebratory ambience perfect for wedding events.

Wedding parties can also enjoy exclusive use of the hotel, allowing you and your guests to enjoy every aspect in peaceful solitude, with all of our staff focused on and catering to your specific needs.

We also have reliable on-site security for your peace of mind so you can enjoy your special day surrounded by everyone who means most to you.

Wedding essentials & added extras

Our hotel is licensed for marriage and civil partnership ceremonies. We can provide all aspects of your event and ensure every element of your celebration is perfectly crafted to meet your needs.

Our team can provide help and guidance in the décor and design of your space and source local professionals in a wide number of fields from traditional toastmasters to DJs and musicians. Our team will help you to ensure every element of your special day meets your expectations and no single detail is forgotten.

Food & wine at Brome Grange Hotel

Our Head Chef welcomes couples and their guests warmly, preparing a wedding breakfast that perfectly matches your tastes and delivers something that wows the palates and appetites of your guests. All dietary requirements are catered for and we pride ourselves on using the freshest local produce to create exceptional food you will remember.

Team your choice of food with wonderful wines hand-selected by our experienced vintners. Our fully stocked wine cellar is waiting for you to select the perfect vintages to match your choice of food, and we can also source any special bottles that may hold significance for you as a couple.
